A convincing AI response

"The student successfully identifies rhetorical questioning and inclusive language, demonstrating a sound understanding of how persuasive techniques influence readers. However, the student lacks confidence in explaining persuasive effects in depth and would benefit from additional modelling and guided practice."

Make an initial judgement

Which statements are supported? Which require interpretation? Which cannot be established? Would you use this feedback as written?

Illustrative AI feedback — authored teaching contrast, not a tested AI interaction.