Classroom Observation

Type straight into the boxes, or print and handwrite. Observe with curiosity: notice what the teacher does, how students respond, and what you could try yourself.

Lesson timeline: what I see and hear

Time	What the teacher does / says	What students do	My notes & questions

Tip: note times every 5–10 minutes, especially at transitions: the start, instructions, the move to independent work and the close.

OBSERVATION PROMPTS

What to look for

Choose three or four prompts per lesson rather than trying to answer all 13. Record what you actually see and hear (evidence), not just opinions.

Relationships & environment	What I observed (evidence)
